

THINGS & stuff

January 13, 1970

Peggy Toftdahl, Editor

TOMORROW!

Our own Charles Mann, LBCC Study Skills specialist, will give a presentation concerning study techniques in the LBCC College Center. 11 a.m.

FILM: MONDO CANE

The extraordinary factual film, "Mondo Cane," will be shown in the LBCC College Center at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 14th. This documentary displays the weird, the bizarre and the grotesque customs of "civilized" man the world over and accompanies it by a striking musical score and a witty and often ironic commentary on man's foibles. Sometime funny, sometimes repelling, it is nonetheless a "believe-it-or-not" compilation of man's strange habits and customs all over the globe. Admission is free and open to the public.

OH BOY! BASKETBALL!!

(Friday, January 16, OSU plays Washington, and Saturday, January 17, OSU takes on WSU. 8:00 p.m.)

Special arrangements have been made with the Athletic Department at Oregon State University enabling LBCC student body card holders to be admitted to all OSU-hosted basketball games at student rates. This special general admission price varies from $.50 to a $1.00 and can be secured at OSU ticket outlets or at Gill Coliseum the night of the games.

JANUARY 15th CONCERT

The internationally famous Vienna Academy Chorus is a mixed, vocal ensemble of 24 graduates of the Vienna Academy of Music. Since its founding in 1946 by the renowned choral director Professor Ferdinand Grossman, the group has toured 25 different countries on four continents and participated in international festivals such as Salzburg and Edinburgh. Their extensive repertoire ranges from the oldest to the most modern choral arrangements and has been demonstrated in more than 50 recordings.

The Vienna Academy Chorus will appear at the OSU Gill Coliseum on Thursday, January 15th at 8:00 p.m. Members of LBCC can secure free tickets to this performance at the LBCC Office of Student Activities.

LBCC STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Radio station KRKT will be announcing a weekly selection of "LBCC Student of the Week" beginning soon. Listen for it.

BIG BIRD HUNTER.....hats off to our Dean of Student Personnel Services....understand the duck hunting was pretty good last weekend. (speaking of birds...how many Roadrunners have we come up with?)

DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER TO VOTE!!

DEAN ADAMS HAS ANNOUNCED THE APPOINTMENT OF PHIL CLARK AS ACTING CHAIRMAN OF THE BUSINESS DIVISION.....congratulations, Data!