Assignments

You will be given various assignments during the course of the term.

Writing Assignment

You will be given a writing assignment based on the topics of the course.

Final Exam

You will have an in-class exam that covers material from the Adobe Certified Associate Exam.

Portfolio

You will print out your best work and present it in a folder.

FINAL EXAM TIME

1-4 class: Tuesday, March 17 2:30-4:20

4-7 class: Monday, March 16 3-4:50

LATE WORK

Late work will be marked down by 10%. All late work will be accepted up until Sunday, March 15 at 11:59pm. No exceptions.

ATTENDANCE

Daily attendance is required. Due to the interactive nature of this course, showing up to class is crucial. After three absences, a student's grade will drop 10%.

CELL PHONES & SOCIAL MEDIA

Please do not use either of these during class, as they are distracting to other me, other students, and yourself. Multitasking reduces attention significantly!

ADDING/DROPPING

I will only add students if there is room. I will prioritize students on the waitlist.

If you do not show up to class the first week, you will be dropped from the class.

Last day to Withdraw: January 13

College Policies

LBCC Email and Course Communications

You are responsible for all communications sent via Moodle and to your LBCC email account. You are required to use your LBCC provided email account for all email communications at the College. You may access your LBCC student email account through Student Email and your Moodle account through Moodle.

Accessibility Statement

LBCC is committed to inclusiveness and equal access to higher education. If you have approved accommodations through the Center for Accessibility Resources (CFAR) and would like to use your accommodations in the class, please talk to your instructor as soon as possible to discuss your needs. If you believe you may need accommodations but are not yet registered with CFAR, please visit the CFAR Website for steps on how to apply for services or call 541-917-4789.

Statement of Inclusion

To promote academic excellence and learning environments that encourage multiple perspectives and the free exchange of ideas, all courses at LBCC will provide students the opportunity to interact with values, opinions, and/or beliefs different than their own in safe, positive and nurturing learning environments. LBCC is committed to producing culturally literate individuals capable of interacting, collaborating and problem-solving in an ever-changing community and diverse workforce.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Plagiarism will result in a fail on a particular assignment and reported to the Division Dean and the Associate Dean of Student Development. Plagiarism is passing someone else's work as your own original work whether the source is copyrighted material or not. BASIC NEEDS STATEMENT

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or food, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, is urged to contact a Student Resource Navigator in the Single Stop Office (T-112): Amanda Stanley, stanlea@linnbenton.edu, 541-917-4877. The navigator can connect students to resources. Furthermore, please talk with your professor if you are comfortable doing so. This will enable them to provide any resources that they may have.

STUDENT RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND CONDUCT CODE A. FREEDOM OF INQUIRY AND EXPRESSION.

Students have a right to freedom of inquiry and expression; those rights vary depending on which location and environment a student is in at the time. [...] In Non-Public Forum (classrooms, curricular activity locations, educational lectures or debates, and staff offices), during discussion time as identified by the instructor/staff person, students shall be free to express a point of view that differs with the information or views presented by the instructor/staff without it affecting their grades or causing other penalty, as long as the disagreement is not disruptive to the instructional or educational process. Students are responsible for learning the content and taught point of view of any course for which they have enrolled even if they disagree with the course content. Students are also responsible for learning their responsibilities under this code.
