

THE COMMUNICATOR

TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 1974

HAL JOHNSON . . . HURRAH!

Hal has been awarded the highest honor the FFA Association can award - the Honorary State Farmer Degree - for his service to the organization. He will attend their convention in Ontario, Oregon, March 21st to receive his award.

Hal has had members of the FFA on campus for functions various times during the past two or three years and works in depth with these young people.

DO YOU REMEMBER? The time Hal put on real farmer coveralls and went to work on campus (the old one)? It was a shock to see his usual sartorial elegance changed to a real farmer's uniform - but then, darned if he didn't cut a telephone cable and put all the campus out of communication until we got him back into his regular clothes.

MEMORIAL SERVICE . . .

for Floyd Fisher's son has been set for March 9 at 11:00 a.m. in the Capitol Baptist Church in Salem.

HELLO SALLY . . .

Sally Wallace is at Benton Center - will replace Chris who is leaving her position.

FROM RAY JEAN'S OFFICE . . . POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

The position of campus mail distribution will be open. Call Janice for more details.

OPERA FOR NEXT YEAR . . .

The operas for next year have been announced. RIGOLETTO, SALOME, DER FREIS-CHUTZ and THE ELIXIR OF LOVE.

LBCC Opera Night will offer the same quality seats - tickets will be $22.50. It is not too early to make your reservations. Call Loraine at 434. I will attach a sheet with the dates and more information in the near future, but don't delay reservations.

MARTI'S CLASS PERFORMANCE . . .

The interpretive readings that Marti's class is doing should enliven your lunch time tomorrow - so take your burned cookies and cold coffee and listen to some entertainment like "If Men Played Cards Like Women," (very sexist - but too funny to disturb), "Profiles of Courage," and "Behind the Beyond" which is comical also.

F-113

NOON HOUR ENTERTAINMENT . . .

won't quit around here - The Strawberry Jammin' session at noons on Fridays has been packing them in. It hasn't helped Tom Chase's class next door to the festivities any, but it is hard to knock joy.

SWING CHOIR THIS FRIDAY . . .

at noon in the Commons. The choir is bound for Expo '74. They can't miss - they want to go - we want them to go - just cheer them on.

CHEER . . . reminds me of Derwood, the retired cheerleader. And reminds me further - Did I ever tell you that Derwood's suave, worldly manner and knowledge is really the result of his having once been a bellboy? From cheerleader to bellboy to Purchasing Agent with a future as a semi-truck driver. That's a well-rounded career pattern for a fellow who just goes to pieces when he gets Thursday's pants on with Wednesday's jacket.

JOCELYN IS GIVING . . . instead of asking for a "freeload" - she has an enormous quantity of used envelopes, all sizes, that she will give for someone use of campus mail. (I thought she was just an organized packrat - but she is actually efficient, practical and has her own antique shop which proves her recognition of values - Joss-Dale "Wee" Antiques.) At next weekend's antique fair on the Benton County Fairgrounds Joss will have her booth, so if you get there look for her.

SERIOUS LOSS . . .

Two stainless steel carts have been borrowed from the science area. Bonna says they are happy to loan the carts temporarily when a request is made for their use, but prolonged absences of unrequested carts disturbs the normal happy routine. Just give Bonna a call if you recognize one out of place so they can recover it.

NEWNEW LAY-OUT PROCEDURES FOR WELDERS

This spring term, 6-10 p.m. in ST-213. Marv Clemons instructing.

FROM THE BOOKSTORE . . .
Nothing - they don't trust me.

FROM JON CARNAHAN . . .

A scolding for printing an incorrect figure - so will reproduce the whole of the report on enrollment.

BOB TALBOT GAVE UP . . . on his attempt to be a ceramicist so will give his tools to someone else with more efficiency at shaping mud. Call him X-351.

CANCEL

CLASSIFIED ASSOCIATION MEETING . . .

MONDAY, MARCH 11th, Alsea Room at Noon. Election of officers and negotiations report on the agenda.

LBCC DAMES . . .

1956 Chev station wagon - needs some engine work. Call Jim Preston, X-246

NEW MACHINE UPSTAIRS . . .

Installed in the Commons area - a new apple, orange and sandwich machine.

PICKPOCKET . . .

former espionage agent, ESP expert, Dr. of Hypnosis, author of books of "passionate" poetry banned outside of France for years, ordained Minister and Dr. of Divinity, one of France's 100 Chevalier Cooks, creator of Youth clubs, recipient of numerous awards as a photographer, VIC PERRY, is the lecturer scheduled in the Forum tomorrow, Wednesday, evening at 7:30 p.m.

If that doesn't intrigue you about this man, how about his request that as part of the requirements for his performance he be supplied with a private room adjoining the place of performance equipped with - one glass of organic grown juice or fruit.

Call the Center office for more information. Tickets, $1.50, $1 and .75.

SPECIAL NEWS . . .

Bob Ross is going to have a Nature Photography course this spring term, Wednesday and Saturdays. Saturday there will be field trips with cameras and Wednesdays will be critiquing meetings.

FOR SALE . . .

One half of one half of a choice beef critter - butchered and wrapped, ready to pick up. Not just 1/4 because of the special distribution of meat. Call Carol at the switchboard.

BASKETBALL REGIONAL TOURNAMENT . . .

in Idaho - LB CC attending as OCCAA second team. SWOC is first team. LBCC's Gary Frank was named to the second team of OCCAA's honorable mention players.

Memo

TO: All Staff

FROM: Jim Preston, and Stan Ruckman

DATE: March 5, 1974

SUBJECT: Paper & Xerox Copying

We are asking that everyone on the staff please help us with usage of paper and Xerox copying. Our paper usage is just about double what it was last year at this time.

Due to the rise in paper costs of about 30%, our budget for this year is totally expended, and it does not look good for next year either. We are trying to do as much as we can to conserve on paper by printing both sides whenever possible. If you have a job that for some reason you do not want printed on both sides, please tell us. Only order what you are sure you will use.

Our Xerox copying is also getting out of hand. We have jumped from 8000 to approximately 17,000 copies per month on each of our model 4000 Xerox machines. We are asking that all staff members please slow down on the copying. Unless you really need a copy, don't make one. If you need six copies of something, don't make ten just in case you might need them. Please do not make personal copies on these machines. There is a 5¢ coin-operated machine in the library for personal copies. Because of the increased Xerox copies our budgeted funds are already expended for this year. Unless additional money is found somewhere, we may have to discontinue using some of the Xerox machines.

Please do what you can to reduce our copying and paper costs. Thank you very much for your cooperation.
