

LINN-BENTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE
COMM111: PUBLIC SPEAKING – Winter 2022

INSTRUCTOR: Zach Harper
Office: NSH 206
Email: harperz@linnbenton.edu

OFFICE HOURS: Tuesdays & Thursdays 8:00-8:30am in NSH 206.
Also available for prearranged meetings on Zoom.

DEPARTMENT WIDE TEXT: Valenzano III, J. M., Braden, S. W., Broeckelman-Post, M. A. (2020). The Speaker's Primer. Southlake, TX: Fountainhead Press.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course exposes students to theory and practice in the creation, adaptation and delivery of original speeches before an audience. It also provides the opportunity to understand the nature of public speaking and discourse in both ancient and modern society.

PERFORMANCE-BASED LEARNER OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course, students should be able to:

- Synthesize and organize information for varied audiences
- Interact with confidence while adapting messages to audience needs
- Listen critically

As a result of taking General Education Speech Communication courses, a student should be able to:

- Engage in ethical communication processes that accomplish goals
- Respond to the needs of diverse audiences and contexts
- Build and manage relationships

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE: Face-to-face attendance for class is required and rest assured I will take attendance every day. Students with more than 3 unexcused absences during the term will see a deduction of points from their overall grade with each additional absence past the 3rd. Your success will be largely correlated to your presence in class. You cannot and will not pass by simply showing up on your scheduled speech days, but at no other point in the term. Fair warning.

Excused absences are those that include medical documentation prohibiting one from attending class. If you are feeling ill, you should not come to class. If you are going to miss a significant portion of class (ex: you test positive for COVID-19) please communicate your situation with me so we can work together to come up with possible alternative arrangements during your absence. I will do my best to be understanding, compassionate, and flexible. But just know: no matter what, you cannot pass COMM 111 without delivering public speeches.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMODATIONS:

LBCC is committed to inclusiveness and equal access to higher education. If you have approved accommodations through the Center for Accessibility Resources (CFAR) and would like to use your accommodations in the class, please talk to your instructor as soon as possible to discuss your needs. If you believe you may need accommodations but are not yet registered with CFAR, please visit the CFAR Website for steps on how to apply for services or call (541) 917-4789.

ACCOUNTABILITY: All participants will be held accountable for their actions in class.

1. Proper respect and decorum will be observed during all class sessions. Civility is critical to ensure all students feel confident and comfortable in the classroom.
 - Displaying respect for all members of the classroom community, both your instructor and fellow students. This includes mandatory mask-wearing until otherwise decreed by LBCC. Masks must cover your mouth and nose. Face shields are not an appropriate substitute for masks. Any student who refuses to wear a mask while in class (or removes it) will be reported to Campus Public Safety and the ASSH Dean.
 - Attentiveness to and participation in discussions and in-class activities.
 - Avoidance of unnecessary disruptions during class such as private conversations, using cell phones, or doing work for other classes.
 - Avoid obstructing or impeding the learning process for your fellow classmates.
2. It is your responsibility to complete assignments prior to the start of class. This includes homework, papers, and speech preparation. This allows us to engage in productive class discussions and is the time to ask relevant questions.
3. Please don't let tardiness become a problem. If you are late on more than one occasion, I will discuss this issue with you outside of class time. If the problem persists, further instances of tardiness will count as unexcused absences.
4. LBCC prohibits unlawful discrimination based on race, color, religion, ethnicity, use of native language, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, veteran status, age, or any other status protected under applicable federal, state, or local laws.

BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS: A course catalog contains a very clear summary of the rules of conduct for any class, including academic performance and classroom behavior. If you violate these rules, you may be in violation of the LBCC Judicial Code. Penalties range from grade reductions and failure of the course, to expulsion from the College. In addition to these requirements, I have the following expectations of students:

1. If you wish to speak to me about a grade or any other personal matter, please arrange a meeting outside of class time. It is not suitable to engage in these discussions in front of fellow students.
2. The use of cell phones and other electronic devices (without instructor preapproval) during all class meetings is prohibited.
3. Distractions must be minimized in order for us to use our time effectively in class. This theme extends its relevance to food/drink and visitors.

ASSIGNMENTS:

1. PLAGIARISM, ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT, & CHEATING WILL NOT BE TOLERATED. Penalties for these actions may result in zero points for the assignment or exam, failure of the course, or possible expulsion from the College. See your undergraduate catalog for the College's definition of plagiarism and academic misconduct.
2. All speeches must be given on the day they are assigned. If you are unable to attend class on your scheduled speech day, I must be notified as soon as possible prior to the assigned presentation day/time. I understand that special circumstances can occur, but it is your responsibility to inform me of any. Make-up opportunities will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Student athletes and others who miss class due to College activities must complete assignments prior to an absence.
3. Proper dress/apparel is required for students on presentation days. Failure to comply with our understood dress guidelines (think business casual) may result in loss of points. Professional attire is encouraged, but not mandatory. More information on this will be made available as presentation days approach.
