TALKING TURKEY

Can't help but take this opportunity to wish you all a happy and restful Thanksgiving Holiday....no school Thursday or Friday.....but if the "to do" file on your desk looks anything like mine, there'll be lots of left-overs to greet you next Monday morning! There's something about three day work weeks.....

HERE'S OUR BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

- December 4 - Open House at Sewage treatment plant, afternoon. Exact time to be announced. Dr. Scott and the fellas there have done a bang-up job polishing up the place for the occasion!
- December 4 - First annual LBCC Public Affairs Banquet - Mr. Jordan has tickets, $4.00 for a steak dinner at the T & R. Secretary of State Clay Myers will be speaking along with other noteables including Dr. Schafer, Dick Blunk, Vice Pres. Wah Chang, Jerry Rice, Albany City Manager, and Lyman Nielson, Regional Program Director, Training and Manpower Development, Dept. of Interior. A no-host social hour at 6:30 precedes the 7:15 banquet. Encourage your friends, relatives and neighbors to come with you - Mr. Jordan has a great evening in store for you as the speakers focus on the community's, industry's, government's and the college's roles in meeting the needs for trained personnel in the vital area of environmental control.
- December 5 - Dr. Schafer will be presenting two awards from the college to people instrumental in getting LBCC started at the Chamber of Commerce Breakfast.
- December 5&6 - Final opportunities to see "The Impossible Years"! (Get your tickets at French's Jewelers).
- December 6 - AS-LBCC formal dance - "The Time of The Season" at Roundhouse, 8:00 p.m. A court with queen and all is being planned, altho I understand the Student Senate still must rule on that segment of the plans. French's Jewelers has donated the crown, and I believe that staff and faculty are invited to attend.
- December 7 - Open House at College Center & Tours of new relocatable units. Birthday cake and coffee will be served, and we'd appreciate any displays faculty and classes may wish to arrange. We start "pouring" at 2:00 p.m. and close doors at 4:30 p.m. You will receive a memo with further info soon! (Do plan to attend if possible.)

WE'RE MOVING DECEMBER 1 - Dean Adams suggests that everyone review their original Fall Schedule of Classes - the faculty will be provided with a copy, and starting December 1, classes will be held at the Park Campus!

PRE-REGISTRATION COUNSELING BEGINS DECEMBER 1!! (in the new PARK CAMPUS CENTER)

Dean Archibald announced that individuals who register during the week of December 1 - 5 through their pre-registration counseling appointments will be given first opportunity (in fact, exclusive opportunity) to register on December 8. All others must register after December 8.

Individuals should contact the Counseling Center Secretary for an appointment with a counselor. Class schedules will be available, and classes are on a 1st come, 1st serve basis.

Because of "moving", the Registrar's Office will be closed Wednesday afternoon, November 26, and Monday, December 1 they have to get organized all over again! BUT THE COUNSELORS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR APPOINTMENTS BEGINNING DECEMBER 1st.

AN APOLOGY FROM THE DEAN - for any inconvenience suffered by anyone during the time he has been serving Jury Duty ... (the past 3 months). He has now completed that "interesting and exciting experience", but he is sorry to have not been available when often needed because of serving as a juror.

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULES will be available the first week in December.

PHI BETA LAMBDA FALL CONFERENCE AT BEND, OREGON

Dianne Baumann, Lyle Barnes, Dean Bilyeu, Ethel Reitz, Dr. Hazel and Mr. Walczak attended events including a dinner-dance, workshops, general sessions, and Dianne Baumann was appointed State Historian to fill an unexpired term. Coos Bay is the site (South Western Community College) of the February Conference.

PRESS RELEASES FOR SPECIAL CLASSES OR CURRICULUM

Please don't wait until December to give me the information! To effectively alert the public to what is being offered at LBCC and when, I need to plan a (see what I mean?) Time runs out, too.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, IS WALTER BRICK'S BIRTHDAY! Congratulations!
