Course Description and Outcomes: Upon successfully completing the course, a student should be able to:

1. Identify, formulate, and solve engineering problems. Demonstrate the ability to apply mathematics, science, and engineering techniques to solve engineering problems.
2. Select and apply the techniques, skills, and modern engineering tools necessary for engineering practice
3. Mathematically describe and solve engineering problems using complex numbers, vector and matrix operations, and simultaneous linear equations
4. Develop internally documented computer programs that utilize sequence, selection and repetition control structures and user-defined functions using the SCI(MAT)LAB programming environment

Prerequisite: Math 111, College Algebra with a C or better

Text: Materials available in Moodle

Grading:

Exams (4@10%)	40%	A 90% - 100%	D 60% - 69%
Weekly Online Quizzes	20%	B 80% - 89%	F < 60%
Weekly Homework	25%	C 70% - 79%
Weekly in class assignments	15%
Total	100%

To make up an exam, a student must contact the instructor before the exam and schedule a make-up exam within one week of returning. Incompletes will be handled on a case by case basis, it is the responsibility of the student to discuss the situation with the instructor.

Generally, late homework will not be accepted. In the event of illness or other unavoidable issues a student can contact me before the due date to request an extension. Any excused late homework must have a clear note on it stating the reason for the late submission and the date.

This course prepares students for a professional work environment. Students are expected to act in a professional manner, attend class regularly, and participate in class activities.
