Editor, Peggy Toftdahl

PART-TIME and FULL-TIME INSTRUCTORS.....ATTENTION!

Thursday is the last day of finals, and the deadline for all grade cards is 4:00 p.m. on Friday, December 19. Without exception.....all should be turned in to the Office of Student Personnel Services before the deadline.

WORK-STUDY PROCEDURES are being revised, and work study supervisors may expect a detailed memo by the beginning of next term from Bob Miller.

REGISTER TO VOTE!

Another reminder....if you're a new resident, or a re-located old one, don't forget you must register now to be able to vote in the up-coming LBCC Bond Election.

BOB MILLER IS STILL EXPECTING!

The holidays are a traditional time of great expectations.....but few of us have the opportunity to experience the anxiety the Millers are now enjoying! Can't be too much longer...right, Bob?! (I speak with experience on this subject....all three Toftdahl children arrived in December...different years, of course!)

Bob reports that the Children's Party Saturday was a sparkling success! Over 200 children met Santa.....and quite a group of parents were on hand for the festivities too. Congratulations, LBCC students!

AND, SPEAKING OF SPARKLING.....

The Friday evening banquet and dance sponsored by the LBCC Dames had its share of gaiety too! Can't repeat too much of the "who and what" because this reporter was incognito that evening....no camera, no pencil and pad. (Hope you had a good time, too!)

JOHN MACK responded beautifully to my call for advance press release information, and the story about the newly established Commercial Art class goes to the media today. Thank you, John.

Please, if you have not already passed on important information to me, don't delay.

HERE ARE SOME CHRISTMAS WISHES ASKED OF SANTA AT THE CHRISTMAS PARTY....

Dr. Schafer...an amphibious car..	Mrs. Love....a new hammer.
Flash Leger...bulbs that work!	Lorraine...4 more HOLD buttons
