

Stuff & THINGS

LINN-BENTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

April 21, 1970

Editor, Page 16 of 1970

COUNSELORS TOUR ORE-MET TODAY

Bob Talbott, Dr. Blair, Ray Miller and Janet Brem (with Pete Scott) will be touring Ore-Met at 3 p.m. today - their way of keeping up with the metals industry and "what's up" in Albany! Their fearless leader (Mr. Talbott) just happens to be the Chamber's Sub-Chairman in charge of "Water" in pollution study throughout the Albany area, and information will also be gathered about Ore-Met's efforts to control the quality of waste-water.

Bill Jordan is PROJECT DIRECTOR

LBCC is working with OEO and other public agencies to offer a Pre-vocation program for 15 disadvantaged men. Through this program, which begins April 22, these men will have an opportunity to observe and learn more about vocational programs at LBCC.

A BUNCH OF SOFT-SPORTS!

Jay Brooks, Dick McClain and Bob Talbott.....joining an intra-mural softball team!! Games got underway Monday - yesterday!

AND, SPEAKING OF SPORTS.....here's the latest on the golf tournament! According to Bill Siebler, Bob Miller is "leading the pack with Bill Maier breathing down his neck!" Others participating include: Ray Miller, Jay Brooks, Dick McClain, Al Walczak, Bob Talbott, Jim Barnes, Bob Adams, Vern Farnell, Moe Chester, Ed Draper and Phil Clark.

CAPS & GOWNS! By a vote of 35 - 25 students and faculty have decided there will be caps & gowns for the 1970 graduation on Thursday, June 11. Measurements for these will be taken on Wednesday, May 6th from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the College Center.

Students who are eligible for graduation should complete their graduation check list and turn it in to Dean Archibald's office by Friday, May 1st. Counselors will be available daily to assist students in planning for graduation.

Dean Adams is currently working on a "solution" to allow full-time staff members to attend the 8:30 program...to be announced.

BUDGET ELECTION COOPERATION

Dr. Schafer is hosting a meeting at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday of people working on the forth-coming Budget election....in the Conference Room. This will include individuals involved in the Albany High School and Elementary Schools, as well as Community College people. The purpose is to promote a unified campaign!

Classified Advertising

For sale - Roll-a-way bed frame without mattress - $5. Doris Hall,
Ext. 32, or evenings, 928-9729.

Calendar

- APRIL 12 - 22 - AS-LBCC ELECTIONS
- APRIL 22 - Film: "The Animals" College Center, 7 p.m.
- APRIL 23 - Concert, Maureen Forrester, Contralto, Gill Coliseum, 8 p.m.
- APRIL 23 - Clarice Scheffler's Birthday!
- APRIL 24 - Louise Thomas's Birthday!
- APRIL 27 - Theatre Production "The Cage", 8 p.m. at the LBCC Creative Arts Center. Call Ext. 59 to reserve tickets, and all administrator instructors, classified staff and students are entitled to one free ticket. Additional tickets are available in the College Center - $1.50 for adults and 75¢ for students.

EXPECTATIONS

May Day! (The Ray Millers are expecting May 1st!!)

FISH STORIES - "It only took the four of us 1½ hours to land 31 Opening Season morning". And, the fisherman is a "her". (Hint: She's a beautiful blonde to whom you speak frequently!!!)

MEET VIVIAN ANDERSON.....my new right hand. Vivian is a "Work-Study" Secretary for whom I am very grateful. ('til now, I simply buried filing when it got ahead of me!!!)

