

December 7, 1970

Peg Toftdahl, Editor

HAPPY DAY AFTER! (that was the week that was)

It's estimated that between 500 & 700 visitors toured LBCC, ate birthday cake, listened to Sweet Home, Albany & Corvallis choirs, enjoyed displays, and gained valuable insight into the "special place called LBCC".

To the students, faculty, staff and volunteers who made the event such a success goes a special thank you.

To those hearty souls who prevented little last minute disasters - and you know who you are!! - a sincere ! Muchas Gracias!

SUCCESSFUL SLAVE SALE - Students were auctioned to the public at intervals during yesterday's merriment to benefit the Tandy Fund. The most valuable student (going for $12 for 6 hours work) was Rose Miller! Margaret Phelan & this editor pooled resources to obtain the services of Steve Sprenger for 6 hours. As a result, he will be researching, writing and typing the remainder of this week's edition!

PICTURE COPIES

Any staff member desiring copies of their "official LBCC photos" may order them through Peg Toftdahl. Copies are $1 each and the order will be mailed on December 10, so order before!

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Margaret Phelan is mailing the LBCC Christmas cards, and if any of you have special people in mind who should receive a card from the college, please contact Margaret before Wednesday, December 9.

BOARD MEETING

Come to the board room, Thursday, December 10, at 7:30 p.m.

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULES

Please double check the final exam schedules. Due to last minute changes, new schedules will be posted through out the campus this afternoon.

SEWAGE TREATMENT

The Sewage Treatment class will hold THEIR graduation ceremonies at the First United Methodist Church in Albany, this Saturday, December 12, at 6:30 pm.

MEETINGS

Friday, December 11, at 12:00 noon in the board room there will be a President's Advisory meeting. This will be an informal session - think of a topic and come.

DAY OF OLD

Ken Cheney will be celebrating his birthday Sunday, December 13.

FROM THE GRAPE VINE

Dr. Needham is attending a conference, through December 9, concerning secondary and higher education schools.

Student Financial Aid will be the topic of the meeting at Lane CC this Friday. Attending will be Frances Tompkins and Lee Archibald.

Grade cards will soon be out, December 9 to be exact. There will be instructions on them regarding the grading system.

International Club will be having a potluck this Friday nite, the 11th, at 6:30 at Harvey Scott's home.

There is a 16mm Bell & Howell Movie Projector cover missing and Mr. Leger would appreciate its return to the LRC. (cover no. 7)

Adult Ed. schedules will be distributed this week. They will be available in most banks, Corvallis schools, and most civic buildings in the two county area. They will be mailed directly to those boxholders outside the Albany area.

We have visitors today from Washington D. C., They will be discussing the nursing program.

The Campus Calendar is now being prepared through the Office of Student Activities. If you have any events you think should be on the calendar, contact Bob Miller.

Home schedules for the basketball team are available in the Office of Student Activities.

Nadine Jordan has a cute little black & tan miniature Dachshund puppy for sale. $75.00.

Ever had a Cairn Terrier pup (AKC)? Max Lieberman has some for sale.

Flu bug? No. Volkswagen bug? Yes. 1964 model has had a recent engine overhaul. $695 - See Doris in Business Office or call 928-9729 evenings.

LBCC vs George Fox - Dec. 8, at 8pm at the AUHS gym.

As slave editor of this edition of the Communicator I would like to add my own personal thanks as well as thanks from the Student Government to all faculty and staff who have made this term a great term and this past weekend such a tremendous success.

Steve Sprenger