How to Succeed in Rehearsal and Performance!

Classroom Interaction: This course will require you to do a significant amount of reading and writing both in and out of class. There will be many visual and online aides used in and out of class. In addition, listening will be of the utmost importance during lecture and listening drills as both require open, attentive ears. Please understand that lectures will not simply be a summary of what you have read, but are additionally meant to complement/augment the material presented in the text. Falling behind in the reading will also make it more difficult for you to be interactive during class lectures and discussions about the material and listening. This course is an interactive process that will require us all to work together. The more involved you are in class, the more you will reap the benefits available to you.

Attendance Policy: For students to get the most out of this course, it is expected that you will attend class on a regular basis. While I am aware that life does throw unexpected events our way, learning can only take place through active engagement and participation in the educational process. Repeated absences or late arrivals are a disruption to this process and will cause you to fall behind quickly. Please arrive to class on time with an open mind, open ears, and ready to participate. This is your education which requires your active involvement in the process.

Homework/Out-of-class Assignments: Assignments will be given for you to complete between class times at home and on your own. These are essential to your mastery of the material and participation in the following class meeting. Not completing an assignment may cause you to fall behind or be lost during the next class meeting. Please keep up with all assignments.

Late Assignment Policy: Part of the college experience is learning how to manage your time accordingly including personal, educational, and employment requirements. If you need more time on an assignment, email me for an extension before the class in which the assignment is due. Late assignments will be accepted for half value.
