WELCOME

I'm glad you chose to take this course. I sincerely hope you find it enlightening and challenging. Yes there is work involved, but I think you're going to find it fun as well. Our world is "shrinking" as we do more business, politics, and war on a global scale. One of the best ways to navigate this world is by understanding each cultures' belief systems. This type of understanding helps promote peace rather than conflict. I'm here to help and guide you in the process. Welcome!

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Surveys cultures and religions of the eastern world with a focus on the teaching of compassion and tolerance in these religions. Includes understandings of Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, and Sikhism.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Fisher, Mary Pat. Living Religions (9th Edition). 2010. Prentice Hall. ISBN: 978-0205956401
(If you already have the 8th Edition from a previous class, that is acceptable as well.)

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate awareness and insight of other world religions.
2. Recognize and articulate the diverse issues related to eastern religions.
3. Draw relationships from eastern cultures and beliefs in a process of self exploration for greater personal understanding.
4. Use analytical and critical thinking to draw reasonable conclusions.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

Recommended: College level reading and writing skills.

STUDENT CONDUCT

There will be no tolerance for jokes or slurs regarding race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or physical or mental abilities. It is crucial to maintain a respectful environment while exploring different religious traditions and beliefs. Any attempt to undermine this environment will not be tolerated, and the student will be removed from the class. To talk and learn together, people must feel free to share and explore ideas in a safe, open environment. If I interpret your work as being disrespectful or bordering on hate speech, your work will earn zero credit. Disagreement is acceptable and even encouraged, but it must be done in an intelligent, considerate, respectful, and reasoned manner.

TECHNOLOGY-FREE ZONE

Our classroom will be a technology-free zone. You are encouraged to use technology outside of the classroom for research and for study. However, in the classroom we want to engage the texts and each other in discussion. Technology of any sort (laptops, phones, texting, iPods, iPads, etc.) will not be allowed in this classroom.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic honesty is an indispensable value as students acquire knowledge and develop skills in college. Students are expected to practice academic honesty by not cheating, plagiarizing, or misrepresenting their coursework in any way. Students are ultimately responsible for understanding and avoiding academic dishonesty whether such incidences are intentional or unintentional. Consequences for cheating, plagiarism or any other form of academic dishonesty may include receiving a score of zero on an individual assignment or failing the class.

ASSIGNMENT EXPECTATIONS

Attendance and Participation

- To receive full credit for each class, students must arrive on time, engage in discussions, complete in-class assignments, follow instructions, etc.
- I generally don't excuse absences (except for school sports or possibly extreme medical emergencies).
- I do not post my lectures or power points online.
- Check your Linn-Benton email regularly. This is my only way of communicating important information with you outside of the classroom.
- Attendance and participation affects the successful completion of all learning outcomes.

Reading Assignments

- Reading assignments are due at the beginning of each class. Come to class ready to discuss and engage the material.
- There will be large and small group discussions, in-class writings, and quizzes.
- See learning outcome two.

Written Assignments

- There is a reflection paper and a reading journal. The details for each assignment will be given in class.
- All written assignments are due as Word documents in Moodle by 11:55pm on the due date. (PDF format is acceptable, if you are having trouble with Word. Links to websites, Google docs, etc. are not acceptable.) Double check your Moodle submission to make sure your submission worked.
- Late submissions are acceptable; however, there will be a 10% grade reduction for each day these assignments are late.
- Students are responsible for their work. "Back up" your computer files.
- See learning outcome four.

Religious Service Visit Presentations

- You and a partner will visit a different religious tradition which you have never experienced before.
- Each group will present their findings to the class. Presentations should be roughly 10 minutes in length. Further details will be given in class.
- See learning outcome one.

Examinations and Quizzes

- Final Examinations will be taken on the day scheduled, unless prior arrangements are made with the instructor.
- Quizzes must be taken on the date assigned and cannot be made up (except for school sports or possibly extreme medical emergencies).
- All tests and quizzes are "open note." You may bring any of your own original handwritten notes (no printed materials, photocopies of another student's notes, books, or electronic devices will be allowed).
- Tests and quizzes affect the successful completion of all learning outcomes.

Extra Credit

- I do not give extra credit assignments. Keep up on all your assignments and reading.

COLLEGE POLICIES

Administrative Drop: Students who do not attend class during the first week will be automatically dropped by the instructor from the course. If you missed class in the first week due to an emergency, contact your instructor as soon as possible to explain your situation and lessen the chance of being dropped.

Disability Services: Students who may need accommodations due to documented disabilities, or who have medical information which the instructor should know, or who need special arrangements in an emergency, should speak with the instructor during the first week of class. If you believe you may need accommodations, but are not yet registered with CFAR, please go to <http://linnbenton.edu/cfar> for steps on how to apply for services or call 541-917-4789.
