Instruction Method:

Instructional time in the classroom will consist of a balance of theoretical content (lecture, text review, article review), class discussion and participation (real, authentic examples), written assignments (cases, forms, and process development) and testing .

Student Responsibilities:

Each student is accountable for both individual and significant contribution to class discussions. A student can demonstrate accountability by attendance, punctual completion, and academic integrity of all class assignments (reading, written assignments, quizzes, exams and Group projects)

Instructor Responsibilities:

The instructor is accountable for establishing a learning climate that encourages trust, respect, and support. The instructor will deliver theoretical content, synthesize information when needed, and encourage students to explore and apply the content of their learning to current and future workplace settings. The instructor will guide, monitor, and evaluate student progress and will be available for consultation and feedback.

Attendance:

Attendance Matters! Attendance to each class is expected and required. Students who are unable to successfully complete the course should withdraw in accordance to LBCC policy and dates set forth in the catalog.

Late Work:

Deadlines Matter! All assignments are to be printed and submitted at the beginning of the class date listed. No late work is accepted as it is difficult to keep pacing in a 10-week session. Weekly quizzes on the reading are to be completed through Pearson My Lab. You will have one attempt at the quizzes.

If you have documented and compelling circumstances that prevent you from completing work, it is your responsibility to communicate (email) to the instructor, so arrangements can be made prior to due dates.

Group Work:

Effective work groups are paramount in the workplace and will be in BA 206. Selection of work groups are important. Sometimes, class work may take a bit longer and the Chapter completion may change. As changes are made, they will be announced in class.

College Policies:

LBCC Email and Course Communications

You are responsible for all communications sent via Moodle and to your LBCC email account. You are required to use your LBCC provided email account for all email communications at the College. You may access your LBCC student email account through Student Email and your Moodle account through Moodle.
