80-89% = B

70-79% = C

60-69% = D

Below 59% = F

A student is asked to drop if not attending beyond week 1. If the student attends beyond the 1st week, an A-F grade will be given. Audit and pass/no pass grading must be discussed with instructor and arranged with registration prior to the third week of classes.

1. Article Summary / Critiques: There will be 8 summary assignments from the text. Summarize each article in 2-3 paragraphs, bullet at least three primary points. Eliminate wordiness to capture the main idea. These must be typed to receive credit. Only half credit will be given to late assignments and anything later than two weeks from due date will not be accepted. (1 point for a statistic, 3 points for three primary ideas, 1 point for opinion / critique portion, 1 point for cited source and format) Please turn in each packet stapled together or you may type all four on one to two pages. Be sure to type title and number of article above each summary in order to receive full credit. This should be your own original work. Copied material from other students work will not be accepted and receive zero points for that assignment.

2. Media/News Articles: Throughout the term, you will need to collect two different current news articles from local and national papers related to the different topics we discuss. These articles are to be turned in together with a stat, a summary of the three primary points bulleted and your opinion / critique of how this affects you and/or your community. All summaries are to be typed and the article turned in with dates and sources.

3. Videos: There will be 2-3 videos related to the various classes of drugs. You must be present to receive full credit for that assignment. We will have in class discussion following.

4. Guest Speakers: Each student will turn in a questionnaire related to the guest speaker's topic of discussion. These assignments cannot be made up. The dates of the speakers may vary due to personal schedules. 5 pts. extra credit points will be given if you bring one guest.

5. Chapter review, media discussion, class notes, attendance: There will be a chapter review completed in class. You must be present to receive full credit. I will also ask you to briefly discuss reading assigned or current news media. Attendance points will be awarded up to eight times. You must be present for the points. Class notes may be handed in two times this term. Up to five points may be awarded.

6. Midterm and final: There will be an objective style midterm and final (possibly as take-home format). The final will be given on Tuesday of finals week. The tests will cover articles, videos, guest speaker information, texts and lecture notes. I do allow one 3x5 note card hand written only for use on the midterm / final.

7. Extra Credit opportunities: (Due by end of week 9) You have the opportunity to bring a guest when we have guest speakers. I will give 5 points for 1 guest each of the two days. You may also turn in a 5 pt. media article summarized as stated above or a critique/summary of a video mentioned in class.

8. Outcomes: I will have an outcome assignment for you to complete by end of week 10.

To be successful in this class:

1. Attend all class meetings. Take notes or highlight where necessary. If you need to talk, please come by my office in AC 101. My hours are posted on instructor websites on the LBCC homepage online.
2. Be prepared to participate, discuss sensitive issues and listen to diverse viewpoints.
3. Participate in class discussions.
4. Turn in all assignments on time. Assignments are to be turned into me in class unless you are absent. If that is the case, you should make arrangements to get the assignment to me through email attachments prior to due date.
5. Type all assignments. Cite all references used beyond the required text.
6. Please turn off all cell phones unless to use for research in class assignment.. See LBCC rules on cell phone usage in class.
7. Reading Schedule: I may have to adapt schedule due to each class progression time. Stay current with the reading. See reading schedule on calendar handed out in class.
