

Faculty Association September Board Report

Most of the contracted faculty will return to campus September 13th (some faculty has fiscal year contracts and work during the summer). Faculty in several divisions are looking forward to Inservice activities with new deans or associate deans or in newly re-configured divisions. On September 14th, the Faculty Association will hold its annual retreat. The faculty will be a variety of topics, including the Janus decision's potential impact to the Association.

LBCC Art faculty and gallery coordinators have organized a photography exhibit entitled "Bending Light: Mood/Magic/Metaphor," featuring the work of Eric French of Corvallis, Matt Reese of Eugene and Kurt Norlin of Albany. The exhibit will run from September 24th through November 15th in the South Santiam Hall Gallery. A reception and gallery talk will be held from 11 a.m. to noon Wednesday, Oct. 10, in the SSH Gallery.
