Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate proper piano posture and technique.
2. Read notes and rhythms on the grand staff.
3. Understand time and key signatures.

4. Be able to play all major 5-finger patterns.
5. Learn and perform simple repertoire in 5-finger positions using both hands.

Class Policies

Behavior and Expectations

Students are expected to:

- Practice a minimum of 30 minutes per day. Consistent daily practice is key to succeeding in this class. Even if your schedule makes it difficult to practice the full 30 minutes per day, a lesser amount of daily practice will be much more beneficial than cram practicing.
- Complete short and long term applied assignments as assigned by the instructor.
- Complete listening and/or written assignments as assigned.

You are held accountable to the Student Code of Conduct, which outlines expectations pertaining to academic honesty (including cheating and plagiarism), classroom conduct, and general conduct.

Guidelines for communication

I can be reached by email, and through Moodle.

Use of cell phones

Please refrain from using cell phones during class.

Attendance/Tardiness Policy

- Students are required to attend all classes. Please be punctual - lateness will affect your grade.
- Missed class will result in a "0" unless it has been excused in advance.
- If you are sick, please stay home. You will have the option to submit your class assignment online instead, but only if you have notified me.

Testing

The midterm exam will take place during class Friday of week 5. If you need to miss class on Friday for any reason, contact me to set up a makeup test.

The final exam will be held in SSH 120 Tuesday, December 8th 7:30-9:30. Each student will sign up for a 15 minute individual appointment. The signup sheet will be available during week 8.

College Policies

LBCC Email and Course Communications

You are responsible for all communications sent via Moodle and to your LBCC email account. You are required to use your LBCC provided email account for all email communications at the College. You may access your LBCC student email account through Student Email and your Moodle account through Moodle.

Disability and Access Statement

Use one of three approved syllabus statements located on the Center for Accessibility Resources Faculty Resources webpage.

Statement of Inclusion

To promote academic excellence and learning environments that encourage multiple perspectives and the free exchange of ideas, all courses at LBCC will provide students the opportunity to interact with values, opinions, and/or beliefs different than their own in safe, positive and nurturing learning environments. LBCC is committed to producing culturally literate individuals capable of interacting, collaborating and problem-solving in an ever-changing community and diverse workforce.

Statement of Diverse Repertoire and Practice

The LBCC Music Program is committed to providing an excellent education that honors both the traditional canon and music from populations who have been typically underrepresented. We are committed to presenting music to our students from diverse voices throughout their time at LBCC.

Title IX Reporting Policy

If you or another student are the victim of any form of sexual misconduct (including dating/domestic violence, stalking, sexual harassment), or any form of gender discrimination, LBCC can assist you. You can report a violation of our sexual misconduct policy directly to our Title IX Coordinator. You may also report the issue to a faculty member, who is required to notify the Coordinator, or you may make an appointment to speak confidentially to our Advising and Career Center by calling 541-917-4780.

Campus Police/Emergency Resources

You may review emergency services and resources at the LBCC Public Safety website. Campus Safety can be reached using the 'Code 2' button on any campus phone or by dialing x411 on campus or (541) 917-4440 off campus. Dial 911 for off campus emergencies.
