

Full-time Faculty Report
September 11, 2017

Karelia Stetz-Waters - English Faculty reports that she

- taught a class on point of view and psychic distance at the Golden Crown Literary Society conference in Chicago in July.
- was invited to be the emcee for the Magic Barrel in Corvallis in October. This fundraiser raises thousands of dollars for the Linn-Benton Food Share every year and is attended by 500 or 600 hundred people.
- will be a lead lecturer and panelist for the Write/Read with Pride conference in Seattle in November.
- will be partnering with other local authors to read during LitCrawl in Portland. Their reading will partner with and support the Pride Foundation which offers scholarships to queer students.
