CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY SATURDAY!!!

LBCC students are sponsoring a Christmas Party this Saturday from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Round House. All children are invited! Christmas cartoons, refreshments, and Santa are on the program.

FLICKER'S NIGHT -- THURSDAY

Old-time movies are on tap at the College Center, 7:00 p.m. Enjoy W.C. Fields, Charlie Chaplin, Laurel and Hardy at their best!

DEAN ADAMS SUGGESTS that faculty members discuss their final exam schedules with students to discover any conflicts. (Please handle minor problems - refer major crisis to the Dean!)

NEWS RELEASES FOR WINTER TERM need to be planned ahead. Please make a list of suggested subjects and leave in Peggy's mailbox to avoid the last minute rush. Every effort will be made to get stories written before vacation time! Info sheet is attached to Things & Stuff.

CHRISTMAS PARTY DECEMBER 12

Full time faculty and staff - please hurry & get your dinner tickets from Dixie. (They're $3.30 each) Cocktail hour starts at 6:30, dinner at 7:30 at the T & R Restaurant.

Lots of discussion to date about what to wear.....long or short.

Judi Plank is wearing a blue knit...short.
Louise Thomas is wearing white chiffon with apple green & pink..short.
Gwen Hurley is wearing peacock feathers..short.
Margaret Phelan is wearing a cranberry red. (Whatever it is, it's short)
Bill Jordan is going for the short of it.
Dean Adams will be wearing a "middle of the heel" style.

FOUND- a panic button in the old admissions office. Owner must be able to describe in detail to reclaim.

CAMPUS CALENDAR DEADLINE is December 12. Get info to Bob Miller.

UREKA. Bill Jordan found a secretary. Her name is Erika Orchard and she commutes from Eugene where her husband is a law student at the University of Oregon. Welcome to the freeway! If you haven't had the pleasure of meeting her, drop by Bill Jordan's office. She's the pretty blonde with blue eyes! (The pretty brunette is Louise.) Mr. Jordan is the tall handsome one.

BIRTHDAY SUMMARY

Hats Off! (to all the fellows who made the Open House at the Sewage Treatment Plant a success!) It was well planned, well attended and enthusiastically enjoyed!

Mr. Jordan credits the outstanding cooperation between industry, government and education...and the community for the success of the First Annual Public Affairs Banquet Thursday evening. Approximately 250 attended.

Herb Hammond and Roy Collins received engraved plaques from Dr. Schafer at the Albany Chamber of Commerce Breakfast Friday morning for their service to the college as co-chairmen of the LBCC Steering Committee in 1966.

Marsha Kutsch was crowned Queen of the Christmas Dance Saturday evening by Dean Adams. From all reports, he was a smash sensation as a poetry reader.

Approximately 300 attended the College Center Open House on Sunday afternoon. Herb Hammond did us the honor of cutting the birthday cake, the LBCC Dames served, and Marsha Kutsch was hostess.

THANKS!

It's easy to say "Thanks"...but very difficult to express the sincere gratitude felt when so many wonderful people get together and "pull" in the same direction to make for success. And, they did it because they wanted to....for good ole' LBCC.

Take, for example, the Open House yesterday at the College Center. Thanks to Dr. Hazel and Al Walczak's typing class, and Annie Farrington, and dozens of others, the invitations got mailed.

Thanks to Bob Ross and Dr. Hazel and Vernita Williamson and Jim Reynolds and Barbara Dixon and John Mack and Bob Miller and Ed Draper and the Men in Environmental Control, displays and demonstrations were available.

Thanks to the Christmas Queen, Marsha Kutsch; Princesses, Connie Eastman and Cathy Saari; Student Government, Dave Bloom and Dick Swartzendruber and Coy Rita Hickerson; and many LBCC staff members including Vern Farnell, Janet Brem, Dean Archibald and Dean Adams, many visitors received very personalized tours through our new facilities.

Thanks to the LBCC Dames under the direction of president, Rena Kirtley, (with an assist from the strong arm of her husband, Bob, when loading and unloading), cake, coffee and punch were graciously cut and served, tables decorated and dishes washed.

Thanks to French's Jewelers, refreshments were served from elegant silver service.

Thanks to the news media-(check the stories in the Democrat Herald and the editorial in Saturday's Gazette Times and support from the Lebanon Express, Salem Statesman and other papers)-and the reporting of KRRT, KLOO and other radio stations....the public was aware of LBCC's Birthday!

Thanks to faculty and staff members like Phil Clark, Bill Jordan, Ski Zielaskowski, Margaret Phelan, Ed Draper, Anne Mills, Bill Siebler, Clarice Scheffler, ..... (The entire list would be very lengthy) ..... guests were treated to informal informative chats about LBCC!
