VETERAN'S DAY, WEDNESDAY!

A holiday, and you're all invited! LBCC students are fashioning a float for the big parade....it'll be an event you won't want to miss.

MONDAY....PHOTO DAY

Next Monday, November 16, we will be taking pictures of faculty and staff in the Public Information Office during most of the day. A schedule for staff members (Administration & Classified) is attached, and all faculty members should make your appt. with the faculty secretaries. These "mug shots" (portraits) will be used for newspaper stories, Speaker's Bureau brochure, the catalog, and other printed media during the year, so do make it a point to keep your appointment! Should you not be able to meet the schedule, please contact Margaret Phelan.

BIRTHDAY OPEN HOUSE DECEMBER 6

A "work sheet" is attached with a summary of plans and suggestions for this annual event. If any of you have knowledge of a school or church choir from throughout the two-county area who would like to participate by joining in the singing program, please contact Peg. We would also be interested in Girl Scouts, Campfire, or other groups who would like to be roving "carolers" that day.

Please, do plan to participate! This will be the first opportunity to invite public participation at LBCC's new home. Plan a display, or ask about other ways you can help. The students will be carrying a big load of the activity for this event, but they will need help from all of us!

OCCAFA MEETING HERE SATURDAY

Bill Siebler, Faculty Assn. President, reports that four LBCC faculty members will meet with representatives of other Oregon community colleges Saturday, November 14, here at LBCC.

CHRISTMAS PARTY TICKETS --- SEE LAUREL! The December 5 event is not far away, so don't forget to make your reservations with Laurel Dye.....and pay your $9 per couple!

IF YOU DON'T HAVE A CUP OF YOUR OWN.....think about getting one. That's the word from the people who have to keep a supply of disposable cups on hand near the coffee pot....it's a good idea.

UNITED FUND.....don't forget to donate.

TANDY FUND.....instigated by LBCC students.....read the Commuter if you haven't already become aware of the tragic auto accident death of Donna Tandy, an LBCC student and mother of four. Cans are available about the campus for a donation to the Tandy Fund.
