

October 28, 1970

Editor, Peggy Toftdahl

SPECIAL EDITION!!

Tomorrow morning (Friday, October 30) at 9 a.m. Linn-Benton Community College will be hosting a very special guest. U.S. Representative Al Ullman will be "touring" our campus with Dr. Needham. We know you'll make him feel especially welcome!

NEW MEMO FORMS & ROUTE SLIPS

A supply of memo forms (direct masters and other) are now available in the storeroom. Please take only what you need until a larger supply is available. Route slip pads will also be available shortly...ask for them.

INFORMATION SHEETS

We know it's a big "bother", but please complete your information sheet and return to Peggy soon. Most have been returned, and your cooperation is appreciated!

FRIDAY NOON -- Installation of new student officers in the Student Center.

LBCC DAMES MEETING--- Tuesday evening, 8 p.m., at Pat Archibald's.

THE POT'S ON AGAIN!

You're bound to agree it's great to have hot coffee in the morning...and all day. Thanks for resolving the situation.

CONVOCATION FRIDAY, 2 p.m., COLLEGE CENTER - Dr. Bill Miller, "The Bride and Groom are not in love. (This promises to be a well-spent hour)

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING is available in The Communicator. The rates are reasonable.... deadline is Monday Morning....and last year we had great results!

APPRENTICESHIP FILMS NEXT WEDNESDAY, AND YOU'RE INVITED!

If you'd like to know more about the art of "Concrete Masonry" and learn "Principles of Quality Construction", Judy Green has announced that the public is welcome to join the Carpenter Apprenticeship Class in viewing these films November 4 in the Student Center. Check with her for exact time.